C. MACLAREN. EXPERIMENTS-AND REVIEW.

THE NEW LAWS. In this, the last of my series of articles,

I propose to say a few words on the subject of the new laws, which have recently been boneurs. It will not be forgotten that they passed by the committee of the Marylebone Club, First, then, let us consider the law which deals with six balls an over, This innovation was doubtless made for the purpose of saving time in the day's play it is calculated indeed that some fifty minutes or an hour is thus saved, a fact which cannot fail to be a boon to the spectators, The practice of having a tea interval on some cricket grounds—a practice indeed Sharp and Ward. The latter's slows often which the Australians taught us come are the means of separating a partnership 85 bined with the fact that the usual duration There is plenty of batting as brilliant as it is at times teable, although one or two of is at times teable, although one or two of desirable that every effort should be made us have not quite got going yet, and there to obviate drawn games. For this reason then the practice of giving Our old friends and rivals, Yorkshire, six balls to the over is to be desired; bu in consulting the interests of the spectators, time, between 7.30 a.m. and 11 and in the endeavour to obviate these same was killed fighting for his country. This is drawn games, it is a question whether the law has not sacrificed our bowlers on the altar of cricket reform. Most of the bowlors, with whom I have discussed the mat-1788 ter, say that they feel the extra strain and Yorkshire should be strong again inconsiderably, and this applies more particularly to the fast bowler-to a man like Mold or Lockwood-than it does to a skiw bowler of the stamp of Briggs or Rhodes. I fear that the result of a season's experience will go for to prove that while time is saved in one way, the fact that a fast bowler is tired at the end of a long day may be the means of increasing his opponents' score by fifty or sixty runs, and thus prolonging the match in another. Cricketers, however, seem to be of opinion that the law which 2043 makes it possible for a side to declare their innings closed on or after luncheon interval on the second day of a match is a capital one. The chance of finishing a match is greatly increased by this means, and it will strong side, but he and Charlie Townsend do away with the necessity for the tail and batsmen having to throw away their wickets for the good of their side. I think, too, that the third alteration mostly had the supremacy over the bat, a very considerable on . In these times, however, when the wickets are so excellent, desirable change in the rules. I should now like to say a few words on the subject of the boundary, net which was trio at Lord's in M.C.C. matches. Persunally I hope that this will never be introduced into county cricket. Cricketers who have played under this new arrangement are nearly all opposed to the scheme, Fine OLD HIGHLAND WHICKY is shipped by nor, from what I have heard, are the spectators particularly loud in its praise. To begin with, oncouragement scoms to be given to the slow and sticky batamen, and a hard drive. The idea of the authorities at Lord is or both Shott and Nott were shot or not doubtless to make the bataman run out shot. his hits, and thus give more chance to the bowler, but, as I have tired to explain, it seems to cut both ways.

So much then for the alterations in the game, both adopted and proposed. I will now say a few words on the first class season as far as it has gone. The first point I swould make is that far better wickers seem. to have ruled down south, than it has been our fortune to meet with in the north. A glance at the batting and bowling averages justifies me in this statement. The most no liceable feature of the season so far has been the wonderful consistency of Hay. our mental as well as our physical capabilities. ward's scoring. It is nothing short of mar. They may be a little e bort in bowling. Lockwood, of course, is bad to beat when fit and well, but his leg troubles him at times. Lees seems likely to be a useful bowler for them, and Smith, of Among the entire list I have never found London County, may prove a useful recruits anything to equal Chamberlain's Colic, Hayward and Brocke pil are both such good Cholera, and Diarrhoen Remody, for all bate that their captain ovon t want to bowl Wakefield, of Columbia, Ga, This the foreign much, but B'rockwoll can bowl | remedy cured two severe cases of cholera as difficult a ball as anyou to, and he will be will return toffrat class cricket. Jack Hearne is bowling as well as ever, and this is saying a good deal. With him and Trott, together with Roche and C. M. Wells, later in the souson, Middlesex is well off for bowling. They are always a strong batting side. Perrin is batting very well and Kortright, returned to cricket after two years' absence, makes the Essex side a very powerful one. Young, Mead Bull and Kertright are as good a lot of bowlers as any team possesses, and except for the fact that perhaps they may be found to be a little short of batting, this county should make a bold bid for championship were the first to take the Australians down Lancashiro have won all their three matches so far, and I hope we shall keep it Mold and Webb are at the top of the bowling tables, and both have done fine work. Cuttell and Briggs are both bowling as well as over; and Johnny accomplished a aplendid performance against Worcestershire in getting all ten wickets. His return to form is a pleasure, not only to Lancachire men bullto dricketers all over the world. We have, too, Hallam, whom we have not should not be much the matter with the good man all round. Both Notts, and Gloucestershire are under new captaincy, A. O. Jones succeeding Dixon with Notts., while G. L. Jessop has taken over the command of Gloncostershire. The former county seems to want a few good young ones, for Shrewbury, Gonn, and Attewell can't last for ever. A. O. Jones is a host in himself. Young J. Gunn seems to have come on a lot since last year. and he and Wass will have to do most of the bowling. Jessop has not got a very may be relied on to do some fine perfor-

has four distinct stages of existence, says a correspondent writing to the Pioneer. First as an egg in the overy of the female, then as an egg and as a larva in water, then as pupa also in water, and lastly as a mosquito. In life it fulfils two functions, one is to ent, and the other is to reproduce its species. The appetite of the insect is prodigious; and two hundred or two hundred and fifty eggs is about the number the female mosquito is in the liabit of laying at a sitting. All its functions devetail into one another in a truly marvellous manner. For example it is furnished with a poison gland and a sting, but the use of this apparatus

The larva's body is composed of ten or eleven rings or segments and ends in twin tails. one above, the breathing tail, and the other below, the swimming fail. In the upper tail the breathing tube begins, and sethis tail is kept on the surface of the water, when the insect is at rest, its head hanging downwards. The lower swimming tail is a compound three-bladed propeller and rudder combined. It is such a powerful organ of locomotion that from the moment of its birth the larva is able to swim with swift jerky strokes with almost lightning rapidity. The air tube, which commences in the upper tail divides into two and runs up to the head in wavy lines on each side of the stomach. These tubes maintain a constant rhythmic pulsation which drives and this is the only circulation possesses. Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physics ical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of nickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purcle, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely

On the one hand British and German men of war are blowing up the costly and prized forts of China, which were supposed to be sufficient to guard the approach to the capital city and imperial palaces; on the other, the Chinese have placed their fleet of merchant vessels under the protection of the very flags of the navies, that wrought this dire destruction, Where again in the wide world would a nation trust its ships for safety, to the flag of its enemy? The Chinese do not appear to be conscious of anything peculiar or incongruous in all this. They accept such contradictions as quite hatural and When we are confronted by data such as these, the obvious and irresistible conclusion is, that those who do such things have placed themselves beyond the pale of the rules that usually guide nations at such times, and therefore it is never safe to foretell-what may happen. And yet the force that impels men to act in these strangely different ways, is but one, and that is selfpreservation -the ruling passion of men's actions. In the North, where the rebellion has burst forth in such lurid flames and has suddenly attained unto such gigantic dimensions, the people believe that they toms, their religion and their lives, I authorities have prescience to know that will best preserve their rights, their curkilling the foreigner and demolishing hi works. In the south, on the other hand impelled by the same ruling passion, the by attacking the foreigner they would court self-destruction. Therefore they protect him. On 23rd June a Russian Force of 1500 infantry with 4 guns, combined with the British Force, consisting of 7 officers and 287 rank and tile of the Royal Welc Fusiliers under Major Morris, and the Naval Brigade under Captain Craddock, R.N. advanced, at 4 a.m., along the railway line to the attack of Tientsin, the Russians on the right and the British and Americans on the left.

The attack was opened at about 6 miles from Tientsin, and a heavy fire was return-British and Americans advanced to the follows :attack on the Military School. For about five miles the force fought its way under a Consul Coneral at Shanghai yesterday, very heavy rifle fire, and many villages wore rushed and taken at the point of the bayonet. The Military School was easily cleared of the enemy, who retreated out of it, leaving 25 killed and wounded. settlement. At 1' p.m. the relief of th settlement was effected, the inhabitants pouring out of their entrenchments to greet river. Major Morris testifies to the great steadiness of the force under his command under a very heavy fire, and the heroic manner in which the various villages were assaulted and the enemy driven out, and he attributes the smallness of the casualties the fact that the men availed themselves of cover on every possible occasion.

CASUALTIES.

The following were the casualties :-Rilled.

No. 3752 Private F. Power.

Wounded. Major Morris, slightly.

No. 4977 Private J. Jones, gunshe wound in knee.

No. 4017 Private G. Martin, gunsho wound in thigh.

The services of several officers are mentiened for favourable consideration.

The force laboured under great difficulties from the fact that the stores and medical comforts were on board the steamer Hinsang, which did not arrive until four days after the arrival of the Terrible, and the only transport available was a few old mules and donkeys found in the country.

A company of mounted infantry of strong, under Lieutenant Walwyn was being organized, the ponies and saddlery being provided by the civilians of Tientsin. The Major states that the number of officers under his command is inadequive Departure of S. S. 'Kwang Lee.' and he requests that the Headquarters' Authorities send him four more for duty with the present detachment, and one more complete company of 100 men, to include as many men as possible who have been through the course of mounted infantry. In response to this request the military authorities here have intimated that, meantime, they cannot spare men from the Hongkong garrison.

THE HONGKONG REGIMENT CASUALTIES.

General Dorward has wired to the Mili tary Hondquarters in Hongkong that the casualties of the Hongkong Regiment in action, in the neighbourhood of Tiontsin, on 1st July-were :-

MASSACRE AT PEKING.

The lamentable news which we received last night is generally believed in Canton and in Hongkong. It has been questioned by our morning contemporary, as follows:-

THE PERING MASSACRE -OFFICIAL DENIAL. At 8.40 last night we were courteously informed from Government House that, on receipt of the report of the massacre of the whole body of Europeans in Peking, H. E. the Governor had telegraphed at once to the Acting Consul-General at Shanghai to onquire whether the report was correct that official nows to this effect had been received in Shanghai. The answer came back that the report was not true.

its last exit from civilisation !

(From a Correspondent.) Canton, July 6.

The fact that the Canton native newspapers all assert that eleven out of the eighteen Provinces had entered into a compact not to forward taxes to Poking till steps have been taken to suppress the Boxers, is a most significant sign of the trend of events. There need be no su picion as to the truth of a statement coming in this way, for they would not dare to publish it otherwise: What of the other seven provinces which make up China? Things begin to look like civil war.

For many days the Kiving Lee has been the observed of all observers and many have been the speculations as to the reasons of her prolonged stay. That is over at last. She is leaving Canton to-morrow (Friday).

News from Various Sources. Reply to Momorialists.

Some time ago the three great Viceroys, Li Hung Chang, Chang Chi Tung and Lau Kwan Yat, sent a strong memorial to the Throne urging that most stringent measures be immediately taken to suppress the Boxers. The reply to these memorialists appeared in the Canton native papers this morning. It is called an Imperial Edict but it is doubtless the work of Prince Tuan.

Full knowledge is claimed of the situation in the north. No pains are taken to conceal the fact that the memorial was not welcome. To attempt to destroy the Boxers is a task of immense difficulty to attempt, to tranquillize them is equally hopeless. You inemorialists may exterminate the Boxers. How can that be done seein they are all powerful? 1 (Tuan?) will be responsible for them. Now every man in this country from the highest to the lowest addently longs to fight the onemies (Foreigners) of our land even to the death. Seeing they (the Foreign nations) desire to divide up China, we have no alternative, we must fight to the bitter end. In view of the increased responsibilities capital the Board deemed it only just to themselves to charge the full fees allowed by the Company's Articles of Association, and we hope that this will not be considered out of place. It will be observed that the present accounts show a closing entry relating to the old shares referred to inthe previous Report; which were declared forfeited for non payment of final call, and were subsequently sold. Although a liberal amount has been spent on repairs, to the machinery &c., it must be remembered that, apart from the eff of ordinary wear and tear, such machinery and appliances as we have are liable to depreciation through the invention and introduction of improved, and cheaper working unchinery, so we have thought it only prudent to allow a fair amount for depreciation, say $24,354.23. The New York Fire. New York, July 1.—Saturday night there occurred a terrible shipping disa ter at Hoboken. New Jersey, resulting in enermous loss of life and the destruction by fire of the three North German Lloyd mail steamers Bremen. Saale and Mainz. Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, another steamer of the sameline, was greatly damaged by fire. The cause of the disaster is not stated. The easualties are terrible, 200 being killed and 500 injured, and such an appalling list would indicate that an explosion was the eauge of the disaster. The steamers are among the largest and finest passonger ships of the North German Lloyd and were Il running between Bremen and New York. They are all twin-screw steamers with the exception of the Scale. The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, commanded by H. Engelbart, is the largest of the whole ficet and one of the biggest and most nagnificent passenger steamers in the world, her registered tonnage being 14,349 and horse-power 28,000. The Bremen is 10,525 tons, commanded by R. Nicrich. The Maint is a twin-scrow steamer of 3,204 tons and 1,500 horse-power, and was in command of G. Rott. The Saule is a single screw steamer of 5,267 tons and 9,500 horse power, and her captain was T. Mirow. Of the steamers totally destroyed. by the fire the Bremen was the largest. Her length between parpendiculars is 525 feet, with a breadth of 60 feet, and an inside dopth of 31 feet, a drought of 28 ft. and a displacement of nearly 20,000 tons. The reason for these four North German

Lloyd ships being congregated at Hoboken at one time was due to the rush in the pasranger service to Europe in connection with the Paris Exhibition. It is more than probable that the majority of the victims by the disaster were passengers to or from the Exhibition. Tho disaster, which is one
